

Klipfolio Dashboard looks like it would help my organization but how do I get started?

Klipfolio Dashboard QuickStart gives you a low risk, cost-effective method of evaluating Klipfolio Dashboard for your organization.

Every software evaluation leads to new questions so Klipfolio Dashboard QuickStart connects you with the experts that have the answers. Our professional services team is 100% committed to your success and will work with you throughout your evaluation period. These are the same professionals that support the world's largest dashboard customers including Baxter Healthcare, Lufthansa, and EMC.

Make an informed decision

Generic software demos and best guesses are no way to make enterprise software decisions. Not when you can have a proof of concept running on your desktop. Your Klipfolio Dashboard can be built to your specifications and fully configured for your enterprise data sources. Then you can make an informed decision based on your own experience.

After your evaluation period you can choose to become an annual subscriber or part with Klipfolio as friends. And when you subscribe, we'll apply the full cost of your Klipfolio Dashboard QuickStart evaluation towards your license †.

Stop wishing for better data visibility. Contact Klipfolio today to start your no-commitment evaluation of the only KPI Dashboard that lets you see, decide, and act right on your desktop.
